Title:	Bethnal Green in So Many Words
Speaker:	David Charnick
Photo:	CV: David qualified as a City of London guide in 2013. He has produced three books: The Dark Side of East London (crime and wrongdoing in the early East End) and two sets of short stories, Death and the City and Behind the Curtains. His interest in literary London is shown not only in his repertoire of tours, but also in papers he has written, particularly for the Literary London Society.
Picture:	Synopsis: This presentation recreates one of David's literature-based guided walking tours. Bethnal Green in So Many Words considers sites in his home area as they are featured in a variety of writings. This is conveyed through site-specific readings from some familiar authors, and some less familiar.
